Welcome to WM&Y RFC 2010 Festival!

It is with real pleasure that I once again have the honour of welcoming you to Wimbledon Mini Rugby Festival. I never cease to enjoy these events and they are always a great success. This year we can thank our under 12s parents who have taken on the organisation of the event but, equally importantly, I know we will be able to thank you.

More and more festivals are appearing in the rugby calendar and some put the emphasis more on competition than festival. At Wimbledon, we always enjoy a true festival of rugby, where there are no losers and everyone has fun. That is in no small way down to the clubs that take part. We really enjoy playing host to rugby clubs that share our ethos and love of the game, and I know this season's event will be a success for that reason.

“At Wimbledon, we always enjoy a true festival of rugby, where there are no losers and everyone has fun.”

I'm sure you've noticed that we have been having a bit of work done here at Barham Road as we extend our clubhouse to accommodate the increasing number of children and adults who want to play rugby. As I write, the work is far from finished – and indeed is not scheduled to finish until after the festival – but with a fair wind and a lot of hard work from our builders (and a lot of pushing from our Project Manager, Martin Parker) you could be one of the first to make use of the new building.

You may well benefit from the work in other ways as, although our festival fee is to cover the costs of the day and not the clubhouse, we are holding other events to raise funds. In particular, Saturday saw WM&Y RFC's first beer festival and I hope there will still be a selection of real ales available in the marquee for you to sample.

Please also enjoy the food we have on offer courtesy of Steve Roberts our 4 star Chef behind the barbecue. Volunteer Steve does us proud every Sunday and obviously has to make even more effort on Festival days so do give him a smile when you reach the front of the queue. Talking of volunteers, if you are not a volunteer at your club then have a word with your own Chairman or me. It really is most rewarding to be involved in a venture like this but all too often a few of us end up hogging all the fun when we'd actually quite like to share the load.

If you have any queries about the organisation of the day please feel free to approach any of the Wimbledon coaches and managers. You can also find Jane Brown the mini's Chair in the club shop (large container by the Clubhouse) who as well as fielding questions will sell you a gum shield. Chloe Murray our Welfare Officer will also be on site. Chloe also runs our girl's team, a joint venture with Kings, and is always on the look-out for recruits if you're interested!

So, thank you for coming, have a great day and I'm planning on trying the Conservation Bitter if you happen to bump into me as I pass the marquee.

Information about today 10-10-10

Participating in today's festival are teams from ten clubs. The competition for each age group will be split into two age leagues of five teams. Each team will play four games to decide league positions and the top two teams in each league will play final deciders for the Festival Trophy and Plate competitions.

Registration and briefing

Please make sure you register your team by 09:30 at your age group control tent.

Required information: team name, players' names and dates of birth, coach's name and referee's name.

Note: Gumshields must be worn by all players.

Referees' briefing: this will be at 09:45.

Matches – start at 10:00

The rules of the RFU continuum will apply and a quick guide to these is set out later in this programme. Please help us keep the day moving smoothly by having your team together and ready to play when called. Any team found with an unregistered player (therefore uninsured) or a player out of the correct continuum age group will be disqualified from the festival. The referee's decision is final concerning matters on the pitch and its immediate surrounds. In all other matters the Festival Organiser's decision will be final.

Team colours are as follows:

Camberley	Black and amber.
Chobham	Blue shirts with red and yellow band.
Esher	Black with a yellow band.

Child welfare & photography

In line with recent changes in legislation and best practice the RFU has had to publish guidelines on the photography of children. These are set out on page 36 of 'Policy and procedures for the welfare of young people in Rugby Union' which has been distributed by the RFU to all clubs.

Please draw to the attention of all of your players' parents/guardians that, in entering their children in this festival, they implicitly agree and accept that:

- a) Photographic images may be taken of their son/daughter, during the normal course of rugby activity, by accredited photographers and/or other parents/ guardians.
- b) These images may be used in the press or in Club/County/RFU publicity, in line with the RFU guidelines.

Chloe Murray, the Wimbledon Child Welfare Officer, will be available all day at the festival and she should be consulted if any particular photography is thought to be inappropriate or if there are any other Child Welfare issues.

The Good Spectators Code

(Reproduced from the RFU Rugby Continuum Section 2.7)

Clubs and schools should encourage spectators to:

- (a) Act as positive role models to all players.
- (b) Be familiar with, and abide by, the RFU Child Protection Guidance in relation to verbal and emotional abuse.
- (c) Respect guidance from the club or school with regard to spectator behaviour.
- (d) Remember, children play sport primarily for their own enjoyment, not for that of the spectators.
- (e) Acknowledge good individual and team performance from all players irrespective of the team in which they play.
- (f) Respect match officials decisions, even if they appear to make a mistake – remember, they are volunteers providing an opportunity for players to play rugby.
- (g) Never verbally abuse players, coaches, match officials or fellow spectators: such behaviour can create a negative environment for players and their behaviour will often reflect this.
- (h) Acknowledge effort and good performance rather than to win at all costs.
- (i) Verbally encourage all players in a positive manner, shouting for, not at, the players.
- (j) Encourage all players irrespective of their ability – never ridicule any individual player, regardless of the team in which they play.

A quick guide to the Continuum Rules of Play

Under 7 & 8	Under 9	Under 10	Under 11 & 12

A tag tackle is made by removing one of the velcro tags from the ball carrier's belt, holding it above the head and shouting "Tag". # WIMBLEDON PARK GOLF CLUB

Wimbledon Park Golf Club is a hidden jewel in the suburbs of London, nestling between the Lawn Tennis Club and Wimbledon Park. This private members club is easily accessible from Central London and the M25. Founded in 1898 we boast a magnificent 18-hole golf course, short game practice area and putting green all maintained in first-class condition. The course, with hazards placed at all the strategic points and true, consistent greens, is challenging even to the experienced golfer. The 12th hole enjoys commanding, panoramic views of South London with the tree-lined vistas designed by Capability Brown. The practice facilities enable our PGA professionals to teach both members and non-members to the highest standards.

We extend a warm welcome to visitors and societies alike with packages to suit all.

Our clubhouse serves fine wine and good ale to complement the excellent food and our friendly staff are on hand to ensure you relax at the end of the day.
